

to led by Mr Harchinest, M.L.A., in Spen, the chief secondary inspector, as poke on behalf of the Director of Email of the was unable to be present. be trued, used by the Minister, was pentel to the school. I will be kept was media of the receasion. Figs -4: the beginning of the year feligres, M L A , offered two prizes of $1 set, to be competed for by the gain of the school. These were alloted is the principles of the Rhodes scholaren these handsmann prizes, a set of nicely seni volumes. Miss Wilchens offered a me a beautifully bound volume of E. B. heaning's poems) for the best casey on frigger of the foundation stone. These mer very julged by Rev H. S Heath of Mr Tucher, who awarded the prize to Madge Slaver Maggio Campbell's mer received him mention. Dr Lingley saided a gaines prize for dux of the chal Fred Seat in won this handsome ger, Macanley's History of the British Euros, obtaining 4495 marks out of a public 4500 Madge Slater obtained When the exhaul was opened the staff

When the ethnol was opened the staff as appointed temporarily. Positions see advertised during the year, and the have been filled. Miss Aukersen is been appointed second mistress and filled for a second mistress and filled filled thing between the filled with mistress and Mr Gibbs third master. Here Frasher, Kirkham and McKinnon at Mr Sephen—who worked so well to statish the filled school on a sound have sould not the attached to the school the the end of the year. The best has of the unselfish manner in which her the unselfish manner in which her the school to further the interests of the aches!

historings — Madge Slater had been moseful in a manag a half acholarship hell. C. while High Buntine had won this children (Alian Bequest), tenable letter years and valued at £40 a year. The paper had been awarded the morit without, while acrem others had a send chance in smother subject.

The headmanner concluded his report by waters the scholars a very pleasant bids, and the compliments of the

PATER

The children who had been successful in their studies, and those who had gained pure at the cacent aperts, were then presented with the traphies. The following see the recipients of school prizes:—

Heury certificates.—Form F2, (girls)—1 Ets Wunn, 3 Dolly Trask; (boys)—1 C Statterd, N. Trask; 3 H. Randall, C. McPherson; second in form, Hector Landal; first in form, Dolly Trask.

John F (girls)—1 Jessie Bowman, 1 ma Day; 2 Jean Buntine; 3 Nellie

Jem F (gris).—1 Jessie Bowman, tre Day 2 Jean Buntine; 3 Nellie largan, Edie Suell; 4 Gertie Allehin. Sech Holl. E. by Nielsen, Darsen Partie; 5 Francis Thomas; Teams latter! 5th hom and 1st in Form. Boya. 1 A Ealebus, 3 A. Keya, N. Scott, J. Inder; 4 D. Robertson; 5 T. Bowman, 4 Geriner, T. Middleton, J. Robertson;

A Geriner, T Middleton, J Robertson ; b Servey 5th hom, and 2nd in Form.
From E (garle), -1 Gladys Bures, th Menda Currie. Nellie Gill: 2 Mary Suger, Olive Sharp, Mayra Crowe; 3 Eta Tharle: 4 Isobel Allen, Maggie Susphel: 5 Jean Abbett, Marie Facey, Ladge Slater 5 h hon and 2od in Form-Form E (hope) -1 H. Tharle, G West-tan 2 E Walcer, A. Shannon; 4 G Actander, 3 C Buckley, A. Mehrens, J. Kehrem, J. Sharkie; F. Searle 5th hom. mi lat in Form. 10 is address to the sports trophics (a list the prize winners has already appeared a the olumns of the "Journal,") special pass were as aided as under :- Prim presented by Miss Wilchen) M. firer, best all round footballer, W. Bret, best all round footballer, W. Bret, £1 1. howks; Mr Groves' prizes, I Gardiner (boys), M Slater (girle), £1, sech (books); dux of school (£1 1/sech of books, presented by Dr. Langer, Y. Sanda. TY Searle. Its Cherman remarked that it was my gratifying to notice the way that the diden had been helped during the year, children had been helped during the year, smally when they had to put up with makerable croumstances, and he was him. heing forward to even greater things had year. He said that the Education de priment looked upon Dandenous as as inputant centre, and they were providing the High school with a first close staff Beached was a great benefit to the disthe as it fitted the children for the univer sty straight away. Some of them could be the when there were no State their and, now that they had the schools convenient, it behaves parents to the se much interest as possible in the chilers education. It has been realised the so nation could take its place in the "aid galors the education of its children to send their children if possible. Children were now being enrolled from Mur y rumbeens and Oskieigh. As soon as they were able to fill the new building the Minister of Elucation had promised additions. He was very sorry that some of the teachers were leaving them. He moved a hearty vote of thanks to the teachers, which was carried with acclamation.

Mr Langford responded on behalf of the teachers.

The Mideummer Night's Dream, and The Little Female Academy, were very ably given by the children, who received a splendid reception, which demonstrated that they had pleased their audience. The following are the characters: Hideummer Nights Dream—Peter Quince, E. Walker; Nick Bottom the Weaver, Mr Stevens; Sneg the Joiner, D. Robertson; Snout the Tinker, A. Mehrans; Starveling the Tailor, G. Alexander; Flute the Bellowmender, A. Shannon; King Theesus, W. McKisnon; Queen Hippolyts, J. Allen; Lysander, N. Boott; Demetrius, F. Searle; Phil atrate, J. Ordish; Ob-ron(King of Fairies), Marie Sime; Puck, Maura Crowe; Pease Nallie Corrigan and Kitty was looked after. He advised all who could

w but by Mr Hurchtonen, M.L.A., m

Marie Sime ; Puck, Maura Crowe ; Pease blossom, Nellie Corrigan and Kitty Morphey ; Oabwab, Gladys Wangman and North Hill ; Moth, Dolly Wangman, Mabel Tharle and Mabel Richards ; Mestard Sord, Gertie Allchia and Francis Thoman. The Little Fessale Academy—Miss Prior, Sadie Pearson ; Miss Lucy Lvokat, Ena Tharle ; Miss Marie Plod, Dorest Sharkie ; Miss Priscilla Plume, Jean Abbott ; Miss Amie Applebloseum Marie Facoy ; Miss Pamela Peacock, Marion Walker ; Miss Souse Simper, Messie Campbell ; Miss Thomasina Tombina, Mande Carlinis ; Master Algernon Angustus Tombina, Roy Fink ; Tom, the modern school girl, Maske Slater.

At the concluding of the evening's proceedings Miss Frucher was presented with a dressing case, Miss McKinnon with a box of scent—by the children in the forms that these ledies had charge of.

An American and an Irlahams which had been done in their respective countries.

I guess we have the best jumpers in the world, said the American. Why, one of our men ran thirty miles and then jumped over a five barred gete.

Sure, no wonder he did, said the Irishman, Look at the run he took!